

Student Accomplishments

The Chicago School of Professional Psychology, Washington, D.C. Campus

Angela Legner – Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology

Angela Legner is a student in the Clinical Psychology Psy.D. Program and is a Navy Reservist with over 12 years of military experience. Angela is the founder of the Military Psychology Student Association at The Chicago School's Washington, D.C. Campus and is currently serving as the Past-Chair of the APA's Division 19, Society of Military Psychology, Student Affairs Committee. Upon graduation, Angela plans to pursue a postdoctoral fellowship in clinical psychology with the Navy and serve as an active duty Navy psychologist.

Kyle Msall – Ph.D. in International Psychology

Kyle Msall is a Ph.D. candidate in the International Psychology program at the Washington, D.C. campus. Kyle recently worked with the Kurdistan Regional Government and volunteered as a consultant with the Kurdish Relief Fund. He is passionate about the Middle East and the ongoing humanitarian crisis in the region. Upon graduation, Kyle plans to take a faculty position at a university in the Middle East.

Sherritta Hughes – Ph.D. Counselor Education and Supervision

Sherritta Hughes is a student in the Ph.D. Counselor Education and Supervision Program and is the President-Elect of the Maryland Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) who has presented her research and facilitated workshops at various professional conferences across the country. Sherritta has also served as the Vice President of The Chicago School's student government and has taught various Counseling courses as an adjunct professor at The Chicago School.

Reno Rafly – Ph.D. in Business Psychology

Reno Rafly is a candidate in the Ph.D. Business Psychology Program with over 10 years of experience in global human resources. She is the CEO and Founder of a New York based human capital consulting firm that has recently expanded by opening a branch in Indonesia to reach clients in the Asian Pacific. She also serves as a member of the Human Resource Management Impact Award's social media committee. Upon graduation, Reno plans to continue her endeavor in advancing HR by teaching the next generation of HR professionals.

Jorge Cabrera – Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology

Jorge Cabrera is a student in the Clinical Psychology Psy.D. Program and currently serves as The Chicago School's D.C. Campus representative in the Advocacy Coordinating Team, which is part of the American Psychological Association of Graduate Students. He has also interned with the APA's Public Interest's Communications team, where he managed their blog and Twitter account. Jorge is actively involved within the field and is committed furthering social justice and diversity issues within the community.