

BALI, INDONESIA

COMMUNITY BASED
INTERVENTIONS & SUSTAINABLE
BUSINESS PRACTICES

POWER OF ONE – INDONESIA

IS610AO: Power of One – Indonesia
This study abroad course will explore how the Balinese people treat mental illness and sustain their communities. Students will experience the unique intersection of community based interventions and sustainable business practices as found in Bali. This will be achieved through an investigation of the historical, spiritual, cultural, and experiential perspectives.
Course Dates and Location	Fall II 2017 Semester, Online
Destination Dates and Location	Bali, Indonesia, 12/11/2017 to 12/20/2017 Students can depart the earliest in the afternoon on 12/20/17
Study Abroad Program Fee	US$1987.07
Accommodations Included in Fee	12/11/2017 through 12/19/2017
Faculty Lead & Co-Lead	Dr. Brian Luhmann, Psy.,D. & Dr. Crystal Ishihara
Am I Eligible?	Available to all Campuses. Faculty will review via: Essay & Interview The Essay will need to include: -Why you want to go to Bali? -What your experience working with non-profit organizations (if any)? -Explain your experience abroad. Make sure to include where you have traveled and what the experience was like.
Special Course Requirements	Extensive walking. Ability to withstand a hot & humid climate. Ability to swim recommended.
Special Resources	http://studentsabroad.state.gov/
How Early Can I Apply?	February 2017
What is the Latest I Can Apply?	Friday before first day of semester (on-ground calendar)
When Will I Know my Registration is Confirmed?	Latest Friday before first day of semester (on-ground calendar)
What is the last day I can drop the course and receive a refund of the Study Abroad Program Fee?	Last Day of Add-Drop of semester (On-Ground Calendar)
Can I apply for Financial Aid for this Course?	You may. Consult Financial Aid for Details.
Will this Course be Counted Towards My Degree Program?	Depends. Consult your Department Chair. You are required to complete the Course Substitution Form when apply for the program regardless of the decision.

*Program dates and class meeting times subject to change.

Apply